Girls and boys today are way ahead of their time. Bollywood, Media, Fashion, accessibility to all kinds of information, more money to spend; has really taken a toll on their personal lives. A column like the one which Lions Quest brings out is very essential in India. As the youth of today do not like preaching or being told by someone what to do. This is a subtle manner which helps them relate with their own situation and thereby taking a relevant decision. Such a curriculum should be adopted and implemented across schools for the larger benefit of the society
